MURRAY BAKER COULD HAVE TWO DERBY RUNNERS

The Chosen One could join stablemate Madison County as a runner in Saturday's Gr.1 Australian Derby (Race Images, Peter Rubery)

Veteran New Zealand trainer Murray Baker has won four of the past 12 editions of the Australian Derby and could be two-handed as he targets a fifth.

Madison County (NZ) (Pins) confirmed his berth in Saturday's Group One 2400m-Classic at Randwick with his second to Angel Of Truth (Animal Kingdom) in the Gr.2 Tulloch Stakes (2000m) at Rosehill in heavy track conditions not in his favour.

With training partner Andrew Forsman overseeing Madison County in Sydney on Saturday, Baker was at home where The Chosen One (NZ) (Savabeel) staked his Derby claim with victory in the Gr.3 Awapuni Classic (2000m).

Baker said a decision on a Derby start was likely on Monday. "If he was to go to Randwick, we would have to fly him over on Tuesday," he said.

Baker has prepared more Australian Group One winners than any other New Zealand-based trainer and has won the Derby with Nom Du Jeu (NZ) (Montjeu) (2008) It's A Dundee (NZ) (High Chaparral) (2013) Mongolian Khan (Holy Roman Emperor) (2015) and Jon Snow (NZ) (Iffraaj) (2017).

The Mike Moroney-trained Chapada (Bullet Train) is the early Derby favourite at $5 following his third behind The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) and Arrogant (NZ) (Ocean Park) in the Gr.1 Rosehill Guineas (2000m).

Chapada also finished third in the Victoria Derby while Arrogant ($6) also represents Moroney but races out of the trans-Tasman trainer's Waikato stable he operates with Pam Gerard.

Arrogant was an unlucky fourth in the New Zealand Derby won by Crown Prosecutor (Medaglia D'Oro) who has returned home after his unplaced effort in the Rosehill Guineas on a heavy track.

Madison County is at $11 for the Derby with the Gwenda Markwell-trained Angel Of Truth and The Chosen One at $17.

BEGG CHANGES PLANS WITH OUR LIBRETTO

Trainer Grahame Begg and the connections of Our Libretto (NZ) (O'Reilly) have had a change of plans with the mare to remain in Victoria for her next couple of starts.

Our Libretto was to head to Sydney for the Gr.1 Coolmore Legacy (1600m) at Randwick on April 13 after her first-up showing at Moonee Valley on March 22.

The New Zealand-bred mare ran below expectations when ninth to Consensus (NZ) (Postponed) in the Gr.2 Sunline Stakes (1600m), her first outing since the spring.

Begg said the mare looked a bit dour and instead of an immediate trip to Sydney and then further north to Brisbane she will instead be aimed at the Gr.3 Easter Cup (2000m) at Caulfield.

"We've had a change of plan with her," Begg said.

"She was a bit dour the other night at Moonee Valley, so we've turned things around with her.

"We're going to keep her here and have another look at her so at this stage she'll run next Saturday in a 2000-metre handicap at Caulfield and then we'll aim her up for the Easter

Cup at Caulfield.

"After that we'll work out what we do."

Begg had been planning to run the mare in the Coolmore Legacy before heading to Brisbane for the Gr. 2 Hollindale Stakes (1800m) at the Gold Coast on May 4 and the Gr.1 Doomben Cup (2000m) two weeks later.

After two unplaced runs in New Zealand during 2017, Our Libretto joined Begg's stable last year winning four races on end before an unlucky seventh in the Gr.2 Matriarch Stakes (2000m) at Flemington on November 10.

She closed out her spring campaign with a third to The Taj Mahal (Galileo) in the Gr. 2 Sandown Classic (2400m) a week later.

BELLA MENTE SECURES VALUABLE GROUP ONE PLACING

While he may not have witnessed a winning run, it was hard to take the smile off trainer Shaune Ritchie's face after his gutsy two-year-old filly Bella Mente (NZ) (El Roca) picked up an invaluable placing at Group One level when finishing third in Saturdays Courtesy Ford Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (1400m) at Awapuni. The nuggety El Roca filly had entered the race as one of the outsiders for the contest despite a tidy form-line that included a fourth placed finish in the Gr.2 Matamata Breeders' Stakes (1200m) at her most recent start.

Ritchie and Bella Mente's large group of owners took the option to forego a start in the Gr.1 Sistema Stakes (1200m) at Ellerslie in favour of Saturday's event and that judgment was well and truly vindicated as she fought bravely in the home straight to finish within half-a length of eventual winner Yourdeel (NZ) (Dundeel).

A delighted Ritchie admitted he was starting to get more than a little excited at the 150m when Bella Mente hit the front for a brief moment.

"She looked like the winner momentarily, so the excitement levels were right up there," he said.

“She was really kicking strongly at that point, but I looked across and saw the good horse (Yourdeel) coming and I knew we were in trouble then.

“She didn’t give it away at any stage, so to pick up a Group One placing at just her fourth start is fantastic for everyone involved in her.”

Despite starting at long-odds for the contest Ritchie believed the market price ($37) didn’t reflect the true chances of his charge.

“I think she might have been overlooked by many and we thought she was a much better chance than what the tote was saying,” he said.

“She went a terrific race at Matamata as she was wide most of the way while the first two home got inside runs.

“We missed Ellerslie and the heavy track that day, so she was the fresh horse on the scene and we knew she was at her peak for this one.

“She certainly did us proud and I can’t wait to see how good she can be for her three-year-old campaign.

“She will go out for a good spell now and we will bring her back with the intention of getting her to the One Thousand Guineas (Gr.1, 1600m) at Riccarton.”

Ritchie was also pleased to see talented stayer Excalibur (NZ) (Tavistock) make a solid return to the track when running on nicely over 1400m at Ellerslie.

“He didn’t really come up as well as we would have liked and wasn’t finishing his races off that well, so we tipped him out for a freshen-up,” he said.

“I thought he went quite a cheeky race on Saturday so, if he can make some progress from there, we will have some nice options with him including some races over in Australia over the next few months.”

KINGSGUARD ENJOYS SUCCESSFUL HOMECOMING

Kingsguard (inner) fights back strongly to win at Ellerslie (Race Images, Kenton Wright)

Kingsguard (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) made a successful return to his homeland with a gritty victory over 1200m at Ellerslie on Saturday.

The Rip Van Winkle six-year-old commenced his career in New Zealand under the name His Majesty for trainer Chris McNab, where he raced six times for three placings, including a runner-up finish to the highly talented Gr.1 New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) winner, Xtravagant (NZ) (Pentire).

Transferred to the Sydney stable of Team Hawkes, the gelding put together a handy record of five wins from 31 starts under the name Kingsguard, including victory in the 2018 Gr.3 Hawkesbury Gold Cup (1600m).

Kingsguard returned to New Zealand shores earlier this year and was placed with new trainer Jamie Richards where he had undergone a slow build-up to his raceday return.

Richards, who was busy with his stable representatives at Awapuni on Saturday, found time to brief rider Nik Bakar on how he wanted the horse ridden and the Te Akau Racing stable apprentice followed those instructions to the letter to procure a front-running victory.

"I hadn't been completely happy with him in the build-up to Saturday, so we weren't that confident of a win," Richards said.

"There didn't look to be a great deal of speed in the race, so I said to Nik to take him to the front and make use of his 3kg claim.

"He rode him perfectly and it was great to see him kick back so strongly in the closing stages when it looked like he might get swamped.

“It was a nice way to get him (Kingsguard) started again as he is a pretty classy customer.

“I think we will probably give him one more run in this campaign and then tip him out with a view to bringing him back in the spring.”

The win also created a special memory for Bakar who leaves New Zealand on Monday to resume his career in Singapore for trainer Mark Walker.

Meanwhile Richards and the Te Akau team will monitor New Zealand Derby runner-up In A Twinkling (Fastnet Rock) over the next few days after the Fastnet Rock gelding battled on fairly on an unsuitable heavy surface to finish fifth in Saturday’s Gr.2 Tulloch Stakes (2000m) at Rosehill.

“He just didn’t seem to cope with the ground that well so we will keep an eye on him over the next few days before we make a decision on whether he goes to the Australian Derby (Gr.1 2400m) or not,” Richards said.

“He does need good ground to show his best and it just doesn’t seem to want to stop raining in Sydney at the moment.

“If he doesn’t go to the Derby then we might take a look at Queensland for their winter carnival but until we see how he pulls up we won’t be making any decisions just yet.”

Richards is keen to see the Sydney weather make rapid improvement this week as he puts the finishing touches on classy two-year-old filly Probabeel’s (NZ) (Savabeel) bid for the Gr.1 Sires’ Produce Stakes (1400m) at Randwick on Saturday.

“She is really well and has thrived since her last run, but we would really like to see some improvement in the track for her,” he said.

“She coped reasonably well first-up over there on a heavy track but she needs some decent footing to show her best.”

Richards also confirmed that his two runners from Saturday’s Gr.1 Courtesy Ford Manawatu Sires’ Produce Stakes (1400m), winner Yourdeel (NZ) (Dundeel) and seventh-placed Equinox (NZ) (Exceed And Excel), would both be sent to the spelling paddock this week.

ROCK ON WOOD IMPRESSIVE AT AWAPUNI

Levin-trained galloper Rock On Wood (NZ) (Redwood) confirmed his status as one of the most promising horses in New Zealand when he came from near last on the home corner to down some talented rivals over 1600m at Awapuni on Saturday.

The Leanne Elliot-prepared four-year-old had caught the eye during his three-year-old campaign where he won twice and finished a close-up fourth in the Gr.1 Levin Classic (1600m) behind Age Of Fire (Fastnet Rock).

Put aside after finishing a luckless sixth in the Gr.3 Manawatu Classic (2000m) twelve months ago, the Redwood gelding was given an extended break by Elliot to allow him to fully mature.

A comfortable trial win in February preceded his first start back as a four-year-old where he showed a good turn of foot to win over 1300m in rating 72 company at Hastings.

On Saturday he was even more impressive as he overcame some traffic issues to down pacemaker Beauden (NZ) (Bullbars) in a stirring finish to the rating 82 event.

Elliot has been prepared to be patient with her charge, with that philosophy about to pay dividends for his connections.

"He just took a bit of time while he was growing early on, so it took us awhile to get to the races," she said.

"He's a lovely horse to have around, he's pretty special.

"We'll just see what comes up next for him.

"He will definitely improve from this race."

The victory had extra significance for Elliot as it was son Ryan, who is forging a successful career as an apprentice jockey under the tutelage of the Team Rogerson stable, who was on board to guide the winner home ahead of the Rogerson runner, Beauden.

The apprentice had plenty of praise for his mount.

"It's very special every time I ride a horse for Mum, especially when it wins," he said.

"I took him to the back of the field to relax and to make sure he got the mile.

"I had to work my way through them, but everything opened up as they all fanned wide coming into the straight and he just let go.

"He sprinted really well and when he got in the fight with one of Rogie's horses he dug deep.

"He's got a bit of charisma about him and he's quite special."

A son of the High Chaparral sire Redwood, Rock On Wood is out of the six-time winning mare Rock On Rye, and was a $26,000 purchase from the Long Acres Stud draft at the 2016 Festival Yearling Sale at Karaka.
