RECORDS TUMBLE AS BEAUTY GENERATION SAUNTERS HOME

Beauty Generation strolls home in effortless fashion to remain unbeaten this season

Records aplenty fell as Hong Kong's current racing sensation and the world's highest rated active racehorse Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road To Rock) literally ambled his way to victory in Sunday's HK$18 million Gr.1 FWD Champions Mile (1600m) at Sha Tin.

Jockey Zac Purton barely moved a muscle on the six-year-old superstar who led throughout in an eased down length and a half win which trainer John Moore accurately described as 'facile'.

It was a ninth straight win for this remarkable racehorse and an eighth victory this season bettering the previous best one season tally of seven shared by Entrapment (Halo Homewrecker) and Ambitious Dragon (NZ) (Pins).

He also claimed Viva Pataca's (Marju) prize money earnings record (in Hong Kong) with the cheque taking his tally to HK$84,770,000 – about HK$1.5 million above the tally garnered by Viva Pataca who was also trained by Moore and whose final win came at this meeting, in the QEII Cup, in 2010.

Beauty Generation last year became just the fourth horse to complete the Group 1 Hong Kong Mile and Champions Mile double in the same season - and those to precede him were widely acclaimed as champion performers of their time - Maurice (2015/16), Able Friend (2014/15) and Good Ba Ba (2007/08).

Now he stands alone as the only horse to do it twice as he becomes, seemingly, invincible in Hong Kong where his sustained winning run has propelled him to such a high international rating (127).

"It's what we expected him to do today," said Purton, "he was a little bit fitter. When he's out in front like that mid race and there's nothing around pushing him, he just floats a little bit so my job was to try to keep him rolling and let him do the rest.

"I'd like to think so," Purton said when asked whether the horse would have more in reserve for a next run, "John wanted me to give him a bit of a push today but..."

And in terms of the ease of today's win, Purton added: "It's hard to say how much more he's got there but he did his job and that's all you can do."

Trainer Moore acknowledged the horse's momentous achievements and did not rule out the possibility of heading to Japan for the Gr.1 Yasuda Kinen (1600m) on 2 June.

"Definitely, it's an amazing achievement," he said of today's win, "for the stable and all the staff to be able to keep him up and sustain his fitness level to be able to win these races in such a facile fashion. And thanks to Hong Kong that we've had a champion in our midst and we've still got a champion miler and the whole world knows we've got one hell of a miler over here.

"I'd like to go to Japan but of course it is the owner's call. Patrick (Kwok) and his father (Simon) will make the decision in time. As I said it was a facile win today and I don't think it took much out of him in the sense of it being such a long season and I still think there's a lot left in the tank. Let's go back to the drawing board and have a talk over dinner."

Moore said the owners have "set other goals" but made it clear he would be keen to have Beauty Generation prove himself beyond his home shores. "The owners would like to see him break Silent Witness' record of 17 straights win. More pressure on me. I take two heart tablets a day.

"To have him in the yard is any trainer's dream but if we go to Japan to take on the Japanese armada that will be the real telling factor in his career," he added.

Bred at Greg Tomlinson's Nearco Stud, Beauty Generation is a graduate of the 2014 New Zealand Bloodstock Yearling Sale series.

SECOND GROUP ONE FOR BEAT THE CLOCK

Beat The Clock defeats Rattan (inner) and Little Giant at Sha Tin

The New Zealand influence was heavily stamped all over the result of the first Group One prize on offer at Sha Tin on Sunday.

The John Size-trained Beat The Clock (Hinchinbrook) claimed his second elite level success when he wore down a gallant Rattan (NZ) (Savabeel) in the shadows of the post with a brave Little Giant (NZ) (Swiss Ace) close up in third in the HK$16 million Gr.1 Chairman's Sprint Prize (1200m).

Beat The Clock is a graduate from the 2015 New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run Sale, sold out of the Prima Park draft for $200,000.

Rattan also made his way through the New Zealand Bloodstock sale series as a graduate from the Mapperley Stud draft at the 2015 National Yearling Sale where he was knocked down to the bid of local bloodstock agent Bruce Perry for $150,000 before finding his way to Hong Kong.

Little Giant is a product of Gerry Harvey's Westbury Stud in Karaka and was unbeaten in two starts in New Zealand for trainer Lisa Latta before being sold to Hong Kong clients.

The race unfolded perfectly for the Merrick Chung Wai-lik-owned Beat The Clock, whose task was aided by Mr Stunning's (Exceed and Excel) withdrawal on veterinary advice and race favourite Santa Ana Lane's (Lope De Vega) inability to stay in touch with the leaders in the early stages.

"I was extremely happy," rider Joao Moreira said, "I would say the race actually went perfect for him. Rattan wasn't giving up, he was dashing home and made it very hard but fortunately we have a very brave horse. He tries his best and once again he's done it."

It was Beat The Clock's eighth win and his second at Group One level, having taken the Centenary Sprint Cup in January but this was certainly his finest moment after minor placings this day last year and in the Gr.1 Hong Kong Sprint (1200m) last December.

Trainer Size spoke of the willingness of the winner. "He is a joy to take to the races, that's for sure, because he's so consistent and such a willing participant. He's come strong at five years of age and it should be his best season and he's done that, he's delivered with his two Group Ones."

However, he is unlikely to run again this season according to the trainer but rather be prepared for next season and a likely crack at December glory. "That'll be enough for him. He's done a good job and I don't think he'll have another run. The warm weather will come now and I think he's better off not working at that time," Size said.

The Richard Gibson-trained Rattan, who'd beaten Beat The Clock in the lead-up Gr.2 Sprint Cup (1200m), was five pounds worse off at the weights on this occasion and brave while beaten a half-length into second place.

His rider Chad Schofield said: "We were in front which was a first for him, but he travelled sweetly and controlled the race. He showed an extremely good turn-of-foot, but a better horse won on the day."

PIKE TEAM READY FOR QUEENSLAND ASSAULT

Cambridge trainer Tony Pike left Te Rapa racecourse on Saturday evening with a satisfied grin on his face despite winning just the one race on the day.

While debutant two-year-old filly Subpoena (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) backed up an impressive win at the Matamata trials with an impressive performance to take out a 1200m contest, it was the work of five of Pike's six-strong assault on the Queensland Winter carnival during exhibition gallops on the day that really had him smiling.

Bostonian (NZ) (Jimmy Choux), Ever Loyal (Sebring), Indecision (NZ) (Per Incanto), Intrigue (NZ) (Showcasing) and Terra Sancta (NZ) (Pierro) all produced eye-catching work before they join last weekend's Gr.2 Easter Handicap (1600m) winner Endless Drama (Lope De Vega) on a flight out of Auckland bound for Brisbane next Friday.

Pike has enjoyed plenty of success in Brisbane in recent years with the likes of Gr.1 Queensland Oaks (2400m) winner Provocative(NZ) (Zabeel) and Gr.1 J.J Atkins (1600m) winner Sacred Elixir(NZ) (Pour Moi) and will look to take home some of the major spoils on offer once again in 2019.

"We've got a good team heading over this year although it does seem a little strange most of them are sprinters, which is unusual as the kiwi sprinters don't often compete in Australia," he said.

"In saying that, all have been working well and I think they are up to the competition they will face over there.

"Bostonian, Ever Loyal and Endless

Drama all have the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr.1 1400m) as their main assignment and will take similar paths to get there.

“Bostonian has good residual fitness as he was only in the paddock for three weeks. He went super there as a three-year-old and he had a good hit-out on Saturday that will top him off nicely.

“He will probably go the BRC Sprint (Gr.3 1350m) at Doomben first up, as will Ever Loyal, and then we will take it from there.”

Listed Hallmark Stud Sprint (1200m) winner Indecision looked ready to go first up when completing an impressive workout in tandem with Ever Loyal on Saturday.

“Indecision will be set for some of the fillies and mares’ events during the carnival,” Pike said.

“She is flying at the moment and will be suited in Brisbane as she can handle any track surface, so if they get rain it won’t worry her.

“She worked home beautifully on Saturday, so I think she is spot on for the trip.”

Completing the Pike team are Terra Sancta and Intrigue who also looked in good fettle when working up together.

“Terra Sancta enjoyed her time in Brisbane last year and she showed she is rounding into form with a good hit-out for third at Hastings last week,” Pike said.

“Intrigue is a very promising filly that we have heading to the Queensland Oaks (Gr.1 2400m). I think her issue is a lack of prizemoney under her belt so we may have to look for a win at one of the support meetings to get her qualified for the Oaks.

“We’ve had to do that before, so it won’t worry me if that’s the path we have to take.”

IMPRESSIVE HASTINGS WINNER SET FOR TE RAPA JUVENILE FEATURE

Gritty two-year-old Bronte Beach (NZ) (Reliable Man) is likely to head up a three-pronged attack on the Listed Waikato Equine Veterinary Centre 2YO Stakes (1100m) for trainer Stephen Marsh at Te Rapa next weekend after her impressive victory at Hastings on Saturday.

The Reliable Man filly produced the run of the day at Hastings when she charged away to a three and a half-length victory despite nearly falling when severely checked entering the home straight.

“What a phenomenal run that was,” Marsh said.

“You don’t often see a horse pick themselves up like that after copping such a buffeting and she then had the cheek to just burst away from them in the last 100m.

“Most horses would have turned it up after something like that, but she was quite remarkable really.”

Marsh had been keen to see how the filly would measure up on a better surface after she had floundered on a Slow7 track at Rotorua when making her raceday debut earlier in the month.

“She had won a trial nicely before she went to Rotorua, but she just didn’t cope with how wet it was there,” he said.

“Craig Grylls rode her that day and he came back in and said she went well despite finishing fifth as she just didn’t cop the track one inch.

“We were keen to get her on to something better so the opportunity at Hastings was a good one and she showed that she could be quite a talent.”

Marsh will now turn his sights to next Saturday’s Listed juvenile feature at Te Rapa, a race he has taken out for the past four years. Successful with No More Tears (NZ) (Darci Brahma) in 2015, Marsh then produced Ugo Foscolo (NZ) (Zacinto) in 2016, Ardrossan (Redoute’s Choice) in 2017 and Santa Catarina (NZ) (Savabeel) last year to win the event.

“We’ve established a pretty good record in the race with what have turned out to be some quality individuals,” he said.

Impressive Hastings juvenile winner Bronte Beach (Race Images – Peter Rubery)

IMPRESSIVE HASTINGS WINNER SET FOR TE RAPA JUVENILE FEATURE

“This year we were scratching our heads a bit as we perhaps didn’t quite have that same type of firepower, but the way Bronte Beach won, we might just have found one at just the right time.

“We are planning to have three in the race as I also have Acting Up and Scorpz also set to run.

“Acting Up has had one start for a promising fourth behind a smart one while Scorpz is a lovely Charm Spirit colt who has had a couple of trials and done well in them.

“He is going to make a lovely three-year-old, but we think he can go a cheeky race.”

Saturday’s victory sees Marsh sitting in third place on the national trainers’ premiership with his 80 wins a stable record and a mark he didn’t believe was possible at the start of the season.

“If you told me we would have 80 wins, I would have said you were joking,” he said.

“We have had a phenomenal season and hopefully we can finish it off strongly over the next couple of months.

“We might even be able to nudge the 100-win mark which would be truly special and something that all the staff can be justifiably proud of.” – NZ Racing Desk

COLLETT ON THE ROAD TO RECOVERY

A successful procedure conducted on Friday to remove the metal rods and screws inserted to stabilise her lumbar region following a horror fall in Singapore last October has talented rider Alysha Collett moving full steam into the final stages of her recovery from the incident that has put her career on hold for the past six months.

Collett sustained the injury to her L1 Lumbar vertebra, along with a fractured right heel when she fell from her mount at Kranji on October 14. Following the successful spinal surgery Collett returned to New Zealand a month later and has been working her way through the various rehabilitation processes since then.

Collett is mindful that despite the removal of the support rods from her back she still has a way to go before she can contemplate resuming her riding career.

"It was great to have the rods and screws removed and I was out of hospital pretty quickly really," she said.

"I didn't actually realise just how big they were, so I got a bit of a shock when they showed them to me afterwards.

"The surgeons were really pleased with how things have gone and where I am with my recovery, however they stressed that what I do over the next few months is just as important as what I've been doing since the first operation.

"I'm pretty set in my own mind that I want to be 110 per cent before I think about getting back to race riding."

Collett admits the desire to resume her career still burns strongly within her, but whether that is in New Zealand or back in Singapore won't be decided until further down the track.

"I'm still really keen to return to riding as it's what I love and I'm still young enough to be able to get back to the highest levels," she said.

"I guess if I was older or if I wasn't enjoying it or doing well, I wouldn't be as keen and might look for something else, but that's not the case.

"I think it will be later in the year when I will be ready to return and that will most likely be here at home.

"I'm not sure about the situation with Singapore as it depends on the authorities there but realistically, I'm not looking that far ahead as I just want to make sure I get myself right before I do anything more."

Collett has kept herself busy during her enforced lay-off with regular appearances on television during the raceday coverage of the major summer racing carnivals while she has also recently been back riding at the Matamata track.

"It's been good to get back and do a little bit of riding as I really missed it when I was laid up after the operation," she said.

"I also loved the opportunity to do some television work as it was a completely new experience.

"I learnt so much and it's something I would love to be able to do more of when I do give race-riding away, whenever that might be."

Collett rode 375 winners in New Zealand after commencing her career in the 2009/2010 season before moving to Singapore in May 2018 where she had won eleven races before suffering her injuries.

SOUTH ISLAND SALE ON MONDAY

Yogi, a $1,000 graduate of New Zealand Bloodstock's South Island Sale (Ultimate Racing Photos - Bruno Cannatelli)

The South Island Sale will be held at the Canterbury Agricultural Park in Christchurch on Monday 29 April, commencing at 11am.

With yearlings accounting for all 61 lots catalogued, they are eligible to be nominated for the lucrative Karaka Million Series which comprises of two $1 million races – the Karaka Million 2YO and the Karaka Million 3YO Classic – in addition to the $100,000 CollinsonForex Karaka Cup which they can contest for the duration of their career.

Highlighting the quality southern product on offer at the sale each year, 14 individual stakes winners have laid claim to 23 stakes wins since the start of the 2014-15 season.

Recent graduates of the sale include Shadows Cast, winner of the Gr.1 Thorndon Mile (1600m), who placed in the Listed Anzac Mile (1600m) at Awapuni on Thursday.

Stakes winners Boots 'n' All and his half-brother Air Max are other recent success stories from the sale, while the Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained Yogi is an example of the value on offer, bought for just $1,000 and now the winner of in excess of A$600,000.

There are a total of 17 vendors offering drafts at the sale this year with progeny from a range of 26 sires.
