MYERS HUNGRY FOR TARZINO SUCCESS

Aalaalune will tackle Saturday's Gr.1 Tarzino Trophy at Hastings

Manawatu jockey Rosie Myers will step into uncharted territory when she teams up with Aalaalune (NZ) (Reliable Man) in Saturday's Gr.1 Tarzino Trophy (1400m) at Hastings.

A natural lightweight, Myers usually walks at 51kg but she is facing a rare task of shedding weight to get to Aalaalune's 48.5kg for the weight-for-age feature.

"I don't think I've ever had to ride that light," Myers said.

"It's only a couple of kilos I've had to lose and it should be sweet. The boys (male jockeys) keep telling me that's what they have to do for every meeting."

Myers, who has five Group One wins to her name, was only too happy to accept Team Rogerson's offer to ride the Reliable Man filly, who raced exclusively in stakes company last season, finishing second in the Gr.1 Sistema Stakes (1200m) at Ellerslie and a fast-finishing fourth in the Gr.1 Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (1400m) at Awapuni.

"She's got pretty good form from her two-year-old season but it's just hard to measure her up in this race," Myers said.

"She hasn't raced against those proven older horses and the likes of Endless Drama and Melody Belle have been there and done that but she's getting a lot of weight from them."

Aalaalune carries 10.5kg less than $2.70 favourite Endless Drama, a last-start winner of the Gr.2 Foxbridge Plate (1200m) at Te Rapa and 8.5kg less than six-time Group One winner Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands), who won the Tarzino Trophy last year.

"She's drawn out (barrier 14) but she gets back anyway though, I want to talk to Rogey (co-trainer Graeme Rogerson) before I make any plans on tactics," Myers said.

An $18 shot with TAB bookmakers, Aalaalune is having her first start for Rogerson and his co-trainers Debbie and Bailey Rogerson, having transferred from Matamata trainer Jacob McKay earlier this month.

Still a maiden, Aalaalune will be the first three-year-old to contest the first leg of the Hawke's Bay triple crown series since the John Wheeler-trained The Pooka (Tobougg) finished fifth in 2007.

The Pooka also contested the other two legs of the triple crown before going on to Group One success in the New Zealand 2000 Guineas (1600m) at Riccarton.

Rogerson, then training in partnership with Stephen Autridge, produced Cedar Manor (NZ) (Oregon) to finish seventh in the race in 2004.

Not that any of that matters to Myers, whose focus will be on getting to the 48.5kg on Saturday and enjoying a hearty meal afterwards.

"I'm not eating much at the moment. I'm pretty hungry right now," Myers said.

TONGUE-TIE ADDITION AHEAD OF TARZINO TEST FOR DANZDANZDANCE

Dual Group One winner Danzdanzdance (Mastercraftsman) will kick-off her spring campaign in the Gr.1 Tarzino Trophy (1400m) at Hastings on Saturday and her connections are hoping a gear change will aid the mare this weekend.

Trainers Chris Gibbs and Michelle Bradley elected to trial the five-year-old over 1000m at Avondale earlier this month to test the addition of a tongue-tie and they were satisfied with the hit-out.

“That’s basically the only reason why we trialled her,” Gibbs said.

“We didn’t want to go all the way down to Hastings with such a change in gear without trying it out first.

“It was really heavy that day, so I wasn’t expecting her to do anything crazy. She had a little blow and the main thing was that she settled with the tongue-tie on.”

Danzdanzdance got her tongue over the bit in the Gr.1 Queen Elizabeth Stakes (2000m) and Gibbs is hoping the addition of the tongue-tie will assist her performance on Saturday.

“She got her tongue over (the bit) badly in the race against Winx,” Gibbs said.

“Opie had a hell of a job just trying to settle her. I have a feeling she might have done it as far back as the Bonecrusher (Gr.1, 2000m).

"She didn't really settle like she can do and she was pulling in the Ranvet (Gr.1, 2000m), so I don't think we have seen the best of her to be honest.

"I am hoping that is going to work the oracle and we can get some better results out of her."

While 1400m is short of her best distance, Gibbs is relatively confident heading into Saturday although he is wary of $2.70 favourite Endless Drama (Lope de Vega).

"I think you have got to be optimistic that we can be competitive over 1400m, we have got a mare who is good enough," he said.

"Endless Drama, 1400m is his pet distance and he is coming off a wonderful win in the Foxbridge (Gr.2, 1200m).

"I am happy enough with the draw, we drew eight, so hopefully Lisa (Allpress, jockey) can just slot her in somewhere and get some cover and get her settled.

"The big thing is watching how she jumps and how she settles. If she does that, I think we are a big chance.

"There is going to need to be a little bit of pace in it for us to come from where we are going to be.

"She does go very well fresh and I don't think 1400m is beyond her."

Meanwhile the Ruakaka-based training partnership will have another strong hand at their home meeting on Saturday where they will have nine runners.

Gibbs believes the stable has a handful of winning chances and said Hello It's Me (NZ) (Darci Brahma) is a strong hope in the Harcourts Whangarei (1200m).

"Hello It's Me is in beautiful order. I think she is a mare that we haven't seen the best of because she has always had niggly problems.

"She is a difficult mare physically, but at the moment we have got her in good order. She may head down to the second and third day of Hastings."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Humidor (NZ) (Teofilo)

Humidor set for Memsie return

Humidor (NZ) (Teofilo) will attempt to defend his title in the Gr.1 New Zealand Bloodstock Memsie Stakes (1400m) at Caulfield on Saturday.

The New Zealand-bred and owned gelding has been on the sidelines with injury since his third-placing in the Gr.1 Cox Plate (2040m) last October and Ciaron Maher, who trains in partnership with David Eustace, is happy with his progress leading into Saturday's race.

"I am quite happy with the progression he's made through the prep, he's got a good base on him," Maher said.

"He had a little blow here on Tuesday morning. He worked well. He'll improve off the back of the run, but I am happy where he is."

Maher will also line-up Cliff's Edge (Canford Cliffs) in Saturday's contest and is hoping for a good showing from both horses.

"Hopefully he could run second behind Cliff," Maher said. "That would be ideal."

Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands)

Melody Belle set to defend Tazmino title

Six-time Group One winner Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands) will attempt to add a seventh to her record when she lines-up in the Gr.1 Tazmino Trophy (1400m) at Hastings on Saturday.

The Jamie Richards-trained mare won the race last year before going on to win a further four Group One events last season and is all but assured of being crowned New Zealand Horse of the Year for those deeds.

The daughter of Commands put in a solid showing first-up at Te Rapa earlier this month when finishing fourth in the Gr.2 Foxbridge Plate (1200m) behind Saturday's rival Endless Drama (Lope de Vega). Full story here

Wyndspelle (NZ) (Iffraaj)

Wyndspelle primed for Tazmino

Otaki conditioners Johnno Benner and Hollie Wynyard are pleased with Gr.1 Tazmino Trophy (1400m) contender Wyndspelle (NZ) (Iffraaj) ahead of Saturday's race.

The six-year-old entire heads fresh-up into the feature race at Hastings off the back of two trial wins and Benner believes TAB bookmakers have underestimated his charge, installing him as an $18 winning chance.

"He is a far better horse this year," he said. "It's hard to quantify in lengths, but we have managed to change a couple of things around with him and in my opinion, he is ridiculously over the odds." Full story here

Ritchie ready to put up a Good Fight

Cambridge trainer Shaune Ritchie is delighted with the way his five-year-old stayer The Good Fight (NZ) (High Chaparral) has settled into Sydney life and believes Saturday's Nathan's Famous Handicap (2000m) is the perfect race to get the ball rolling across the Tasman.

"He is great, he has settled in really well," Ritchie said. "He didn't have a sweat mark on him when he got off the flight and he has a really laid back nature. I paid a lot of money for him as a yearling so he has got the attitude that comes with the price tag.

"He will have a little gallop on the course proper here at Rosehill on Thursday to have a look at the track and I think we are bringing him for the right race." Full story here

Karen Parsons

Parsons duo kick-off 3YO campaigns

Balcain trainers John and Karen Parsons will kick-off the three-year-old campaigns for Touchabeel (NZ) (Savabeel) and Sombra Deamor (NZ) (Pins) in the Barneswood Farm Stakes Day 19th October (1250m) at Ashburton on Friday and their performances in the race will help dictate their spring paths.

Touchabeel had the four starts as a juvenile and finished fourth on debut in the Listed Welcome Stakes (1000m) and while her trainers would have liked her to have developed a little more over winter, they are pleased with her heading into Friday.

The daughter of Savabeel finished third in her 850m trial at Rangiora earlier this month and Karen Parsons, who co-bred and co-owns the filly in partnership with Waikato Stud, admits four debutants in the field adds a bit of uncertainty to the mix. Full story here

Glamour (NZ) (Pins)

Shakespeare (NZ) (Poet's Voice)

Thurlow scores local win with glamour filly

Waverley trainer Bill Thurlow picked up a win at his local meeting on Thursday when three-year-old filly Glamour (NZ) (Pins) took out the Ultra Scan 1000.

It was the second start for the daughter of Pins who finished third on debut at Ashburton last month.

Jockey Rosie Myers pushed forward early from their outside barrier to sit outside leader Meritorious (NZ) (Burgundy).

Glamour hit the front at the top of the straight and she was able to hold out fast-finishing debutant Crowning Star (Hallowed Crown), who was subsequently disqualified after jockey Lisa Allpress weighed in light, to win by a head.

"Rosie rode her perfectly," Thurlow said. "She is not a high-speed filly, but she is so tough, she just keeps giving."

"I think she is a filly that will go right through the grades, I really like her."

Meanwhile, Thurlow's Group One-winning stayer Glory Days (NZ) (Red Giant) will have one final hit-out at the Foxton trials next week before departing for Australian shores.

The seven-year-old mare is on a Gr.1 Melbourne Cup (3200m) path and Thurlow is pleased with the way his stable star has pulled up after her unplaced first-up run on a testing heavy 11 track at Otaki earlier this month.

"She is very well and has come through her first race in good order," he said. "It was a disastrous track, so we have just put that behind us."

"We are happy with her and she will trial on Tuesday and all going well we will push on from there."

Staying future for Shakespeare

Progressive three-year-old Shakespeare (NZ) (Poet's Voice) broke maiden ranks for Otaki trainers Johnno Benner and Hollie Wynyard on Thursday at Waverley and looks to be a stayer of promise.

The son of Poet's Voice came with a well-timed run under Lisa Allpress to win by a length going away, defeating older rivals.

"He is a horse that we have had a lot of time for and it has been frustrating because we haven't been able to get him to a trip that we know will suit him," Benner said. Full story here

Sacred Capital (NZ) (O'Reilly)

Sacred Capital the star of Macau

Raffles Racing's New Zealand-bred Sacred Capital (NZ) (O'Reilly) has quickly stamped himself as the star of Macau Racing, with the son of O'Reilly winning Sunday's M$800,000 (NZ$155,000) Macau Gold Cup (1800m) in effortless fashion in testing conditions.

The five-year-old has won six of his eight starts in Macau for trainer Joe Lau, having landed the M$2.6 million Macau Derby (1800m) at his previous start and the good-looking gelding is noted for his versatility, being able to adapt to different running styles and track conditions.

Sacred Capital started a well-fancied $1.90 favourite and was ridden to victory by Peter Ho. Full story here

Melbourne Cup Tour proves popular in Matamata

The Lexus Melbourne Cup Tour ventured to Matamata on Wednesday to celebrate the link between the horse-mad township and the race that stops a nation.

The $200,000, 18-carat gold Lexus Melbourne Cup trophy began its New Zealand journey at the Hobbiton Movie Set in Matamata before visiting nearby thoroughbred nurseries Valachi Downs, Rich Hill Stud and Waikato Stud.

Melbourne Cup-winning trainer and Matamata native Mike Moroney joined former Racing Victoria chief steward Des Gleeson as the ambassadors for the tour, Princess Jenni (NZ) (High Chaparral) has made an appearance at a midweek Sandown meeting with trainer David Brideoake taking the opportunity to give the Gr.1 Australasian Oaks winner a raceday gallop.

The New Zealand-bred Princess Jenni is nearing her spring racing return and Brideoake galloped the four-year-old mare with new stable acquisition and fellow spring carnival hopeful The Real Beel (NZ) (Savabeel) before the opening race on Wednesday.

After sitting off former Jim Pender-charge The Real Beel, Princess Jenni, ridden by Damien Oliver, joined her stablemate at the top of the straight and they worked to the line together. Full story here

Pleasing first outing for NZB sales topper

No Limits (NZ) (Savabeel), the $1.4 million sales topper at New Zealand Bloodstock's Book 1 Sale in January, made a pleasing start to his career when taking out his 600m trial heat at Te Teko on Tuesday.

The son of Savabeel impressed Te Akau principal David Ellis when he was inspecting Waikato Stud's draft and he holds great expectations with the two-year-old.

"He was one of the best athletes I've seen at Karaka in the last ten years," Ellis said. Full story here

Guineas path for Harlech

The Michael Moroney and Pam Gerard-trained Harlech (NZ) (Darci Brahma) pleased his connections with his 1020m trial heat win at Te Teko on Tuesday and he will now be set on a path towards the Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld NZ 2000 Guineas (1600m) at Riccarton in November.

"Harlech we think he is probably our best three-year-old," Moroney said. "We are going to aim him at the 2000 Guineas in Christchurch.

"We think a lot of him. He's a Darci Brahma colt and he is just going to get better with practice, but he looks reasonably smart."

Moroney was also pleased with the trial performances of a pair of two-year-old fillies who strike him as precocious types.

"We have got some nice two-year-olds," he said. "We had two there at Te Teko today, a really nice filly by Dissident, she is quite quick, and a Showcasing filly that ran second that we quite like as well and is an early type.

"There are enough young ones there to say that something will definitely put their hand up, but of the ones that we have had a glimpse at, Harlech looks the best of them early on."

Brendon Hawtin shifting to Cranbourne

After operating out of two Waikato stables, trainer Brendon Hawtin is taking another step in his career with a shift to Victoria.

Hawtin has accepted a position as assistant trainer to expat New Zealanders Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young at Cranbourne and will also train a few horses on his own account.

"The opportunity arose to be assistant trainer to Trent and Natalie and I will be applying for my trainers' license over there so it is too good to turn down," Hawtin said.

Angland, who rode horses for the Kwoks in Australia and Hong Kong, became a quadriplegic after suffering spinal injuries in a race fall in Hong Kong in November.

The Kwok family's donation was made at a racing function in Hong Kong on Wednesday, just days out from the start of their new season. Full story here

Thornton has recently returned from a seven-month training stint in China and he was pleased to be trackside on Saturday to watch the horse he formerly trained, and still part-owns, take out the time honoured race.

"To get home and have him back at Ellerslie and to get the job done it was a pretty special occasion," he said. Full story here

RITA RACING REFORM PROGRAMME UPDATE #2

The Racing Industry Transition Agency (RITA) is working to secure the long-term success of the New Zealand racing industry

Racing Industry Transition Agency Chair Dean McKenzie provides an update on the current racing reform programme.

It's been just sixty days since the establishment of the Racing Industry Transition Agency (RITA) and a timely opportunity to update you on progress against the Reform Programme the Board are advancing on behalf of the Minister for Racing.

Our strategic focus is set out very clearly in the letter of expectation from the Minister for Racing - we must work to secure the long-term success of the New Zealand racing industry. We must reform the industry into a more sustainable structure and support them as it goes through this change.

You will know that there are 17 recommendations from the Review of the New Zealand Racing Industry by John Messara that we are working through. Many of these need policy, legislation and comprehensive regulations for the proposed changes to take effect. Much of this work is complex and requires significant focus from the RITA Board and management, as well as the Department of Internal Affairs.

As we come into the important period of Spring racing we are encouraged by the progress made to give effect to this ambition.

Bill One

The first Racing Reform Bill came into effect on July 1 and addresses the industry's need for additional revenue. This included the totalisator (betting) duty paid to the Crown being phased out and the introduction of two new charges

Friday 30 August 2019

RITA RACING REFORM PROGRAMME

UPDATE #2

on overseas betting operators (offshore charges) to help ensure they contribute to the New Zealand racing and sports codes from which they benefit.

The money available as a consequence of the reduction in Betting Duty is being held by RITA while the final details of its distribution between Harm Minimisation Initiatives, and the Racing Codes and Sports NZ is finalised. From mid 2021, we would expect the returns will be in excess of $14m, with approximately $4m available this year. The distribution amounts need to be set by a specific regulation and we will update the industry prior to Christmas on the outcome.

The Offshore Charges will be able to be set and collected following the implementation of regulations. It is expected that this process will be completed and collection commenced from the beginning of the 2020 calendar year.

While overseas betting operators will be required to pay product fees in due course, a number of these have already committed to voluntary charges, most recently Sportsbet. This is in addition to the arrangement secured with Betfair earlier this year, and discussions with other operators in the Australian market are ongoing.

The first Bill also permits RITA to offer betting on a wider range of sports where an agreement is reached with Sport NZ. We are hopeful of new sports being made available to TAB customers before the end of the year.

Bill Two

Work is now well advanced on preparing the second Bill which we anticipate being introduced into Parliament at the end of this year. This will include provisions designed to give effect to the establishment of TAB NZ in order to maximise revenue and profit for racing and to the transfer to the individual Codes of a range of racing and industry responsibilities previously undertaken by RITA. We have sought feedback from the Codes on this with a view to policy decisions being taken for inclusion in the draft policy papers for the Bill.

Provisions to facilitate discussion between Codes and Clubs in relation to the future of New Zealand's racing venues, as part of the Future Venue Plan work started last year, are expected to be included in the new Bill.

The Messara recommendations in relation to the racing Integrity bodies and animal welfare have been advanced in an independent review undertaken by Malcolm Burgess. His Report has been circulated for consultation with the various views currently being analysed, including from the JCA and RIU who presented to the Board at our last meeting. The decisions on a new Governance structure for integrity bodies will likely be made by the Board at our next meeting on September 25 and could result in specific legislative considerations in the Bill.

Messara also recommended an independent performance and efficiency audit on the NZRB and we expect a final version in mid-September. This has been slightly delayed to ensure the scope of the report brief was fully met. Once complete it will be sent to the Minister. In addition, we've had an independent report on the Distribution Model under section 16 of the Act developed and which will be discussed with the Codes within the next few weeks with regulations developed next year.

Harm Minimisation

As the Board work through the various recommendations we remain acutely aware of our responsibility to minimise the harm that gambling can lead to for some people. RITA management has reviewed its work in this area and developed a comprehensive strategy to add further weight to activities already underway. This will include utilising technology, improving communications and building stronger partnerships with the sector.

Industry Engagement

Over the past few weeks we have met with the Boards of the three Codes to update them on the process and our progress. We will also keep the industry up to speed on our progress where we can.

Good progress is being made but to meet the timelines required for the legislative process the momentum must be sustained.

We will provide a further RITA operational update in September.
