PIKE ENDS QUEENSLAND STINT WITH GRAFTON CUP VICTORY

Sacred Day flashes home on the fence to take out the Listed Grafton Cup (Darren Winningham)

New Zealand trainer Tony Pike ended a memorable Australian winter campaign on a winning note when Sacred Day (NZ) (Azamour) landed the Listed Grafton Cup (2350m) on Thursday.

Pike will return to his training base at Cambridge to concentrate on New Zealand spring racing after unearthing a genuine staying prospect in Sacred Day to complement his success with The Bostonian (NZ) (Jimmy Choux) who secured a Group One double when winning both the Doomben 10,000 (1200m) and the Kingsford Smith Cup (1300m).

Sacred Day was Pike's last Australian runner before heading home and the four-year-old scored a popular win under hometown jockey Ben Looker.

Coming from midfield on the rail, Sacred Day saved ground to take an inside run on the home turn before beating Sopressa (So You Think) by a long neck.

Vaucluse Bay (Al Maher) was a half head away in the minor placing with the favourite Igraine (Galileo) finishing fourth.

"It has been a super carnival for us," Pike told Sky Racing.

"This is our last runner and obviously we have been in Queensland for a while so this is a great way to finish.

"It was a great ride from Ben today. I am just rapt for him. It is his first ride for me ever and I was struggling to get a jockey.

"A lot of thanks to my racing manager back in New Zealand, he got Ben on. He is a star jockey here and really enjoyed his home-town win."

Pike said Sacred Day had the potential to go further after the four-year-old made it four wins from 16 starts.

"I always thought he was a progressive stayer and I think he will go on from here ... we have always held him pretty high regard," Pike said.

Bred by Nick and Anne-Marie King at Brighthill Farm,

Sacred Day was knocked down to Cambridge-based breeding operation Raffles Farm, for $90,000 from the Brighthill 2016 Select Sale draft at Karaka.

Sacred Day is the second foal of O'Reilly mare Top Of The Day and comes from an extended family that includes former New Zealand Filly of the Year Mun Lee (NZ) (Great Wall) and Gr.1 South Australian Oaks (2400m) winner, Marmalitre (NZ) (Wolverton).

KIWI-BREDS A WINNING FORMULA FOR FITENI

A policy of sourcing thoroughbred talent from this side of the Tasman has produced rich rewards this season for Australian owner John Fiteni.

The Queenslander hit headlines earlier this year with a superb Gr.2 Adelaide Cup (3200m) victory by his lightly-raced stayer Surprise Baby (NZ) (Shocking), and his colours were to the fore again at Flemington on Saturday as Miss Mandito (NZ) (Zacinto) took out the Leilani Series Final (1400m).

"We've had a pretty good run," Fiteni said. "I've got between 15 to 18 horses in work at the moment, and most of my horses come out of New Zealand. I like to buy them off the farms, after hearing from the people who have bred and raised them. It's worked out really well.

"I just bought another couple from New Zealand earlier this month, so hopefully that continues with them."

Surprise Baby has provided a remarkable return on Fiteni's investment. The son of Shocking was bred by Rich Hill Stud, who were unable to sell him at Karaka either as a yearling or a Ready to Run two-year-old.

He was then listed on Gavelhouse.com, where Fiteni snapped him up for just $5,500.

"I bought him online and couldn't believe the price," he said. "I bought him sight unseen, after talking to the breeders and looking at photos."

than A$400,000 in stakes. In his most recent appearance, he was beaten by a nose in a head-bobbing finish to the Andrew Remsden (3200m) at Flemington, coming agonisingly close to a guaranteed start in this year's Gr.1 Melbourne Cup (3200m).

"It's been a great ride with him so far, and it could be an exciting spring ahead," Fiteni said. "It'll be interesting to see what happens with him over the next few weeks."

Surprise Baby became the second consecutive Adelaide Cup winner for Rich Hill stallion Shocking, following in the footsteps of Fanatic (NZ).

Miss Mandito, meanwhile, was bred by Gus Wigley at Inglewood Stud and was purchased privately. She is a daughter of Zacinto, who stood at Inglewood before relocating north to Valachi Downs.

Ridden on Saturday by expat Kiwi jockey Michael Walker, the four-year-old delivered a first metropolitan win for trainer Charlotte Littlefield.

Miss Mandito has now had 15 starts for four wins, four placings and just over A$140,000 in prize-money.

"It was a great win by that mare on Saturday, and Charlotte has done such a wonderful job training this horse for me," Fiteni said.

"Now we're hoping the horse can carry on and be competitive in some nice races in the new season.

"When the sire Zacinto started winning some races over here in Australia with his early progeny, Julian Hay – who is now Charlotte's husband – got in touch with the team at Inglewood and got the whole process underway. He passed on all the relevant information to me and asked me if I was interested in her, and I certainly was."

Miss Mandito is out of the O'Reilly mare Mandy O'Reilly, which makes her a half-sister to the highly promising juvenile Intimidate (NZ). Bred, raced and trained by the Wigleys, the Charm Spirit filly scored a stylish win at Riccarton on June 22.

Now the dam of two talented winners from two named foals, Mandy O'Reilly is a full-sister to the multiple Group-winning New Zealand mare Dating.

OCEAN PARK HITS MEMORABLE MARK

Waikato Stud resident Ocean Park has brought his century of winners up in style and in good time.

The memorable mark was hit at Avondale where his daughter Seductress (NZ) led all the way to impressively win a maiden mile.

Ocean Park has a smart winners to runners strike rate of 58.5 percent overall and 55 winners at 62 percent in Australia.

"It's great that he's got there quickly and onward and upward for him," stud principal Mark Chittick said.

"He was a fantastic galloper and he's passing on all his best qualities to his progeny.

"He's got a lot of talented young horses in the best stables, both here and in Australia, and in Asia too.

"There's a lot to look forward to in the spring."

Ocean Park was a five-time Group One winner, his exploits earning him the New Zealand Horse of the Year title in 2012-13.

The entire was also the Champion Middle Distance Horse in Australia and New Zealand in the same season.

Among Ocean Park's success stories are the Gr.2 Queensland Guineas (1600m) winner Kolding (NZ) and the Listed Placid Ark Stakes (1200m) winner Ocean Jewel (NZ).

He is the sire of 13 stakes performers to the highest level.

Another Dollar (NZ) was runner-up in the Gr.1 Queensland Oaks (2200m) and likewise Mongolianconqueror (NZ) in the Gr.1 New Zealand Derby (2400m).

Arrogant (NZ) was narrowly denied in the Gr.1 Rosehill Guineas (2000m) while Rondinella (NZ) is a multiple Group One placegetter.

"He's come close to that Group One and it's only a matter of time before he cracks it," Chittick said.

Seaway (NZ), Pretty To Sea (NZ), Our Hail Mary (NZ), Dancer's Kin, Ocean's Fourteen (NZ), Tofane (NZ) and Miss Valencia (NZ) are also all stakes placed.

His progeny are consistent, the likes of multiple winners Star of the Seas (6 wins), Clement Legend (5 wins) and Kolding (5 wins) emphasising that.

Ocean Park has now left winners in five countries – New Zealand, Australia, Hong Kong, Singapore, and Malaysia. He is also the first New Zealand based stallion of his year to reach the century milestone.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Fond Wellington Steeples memories for Nelson

The Grant Plumbing Wellington Steeplechase (5500m) holds some great memories for Hastings trainer Paul Nelson and he hopes to add another victory in the race at Trentham on Saturday.

Nelson has been one of Hawke's Bay's top trainers for many years, concentrating mainly on jumpers and has produced well in excess of 200 winners since he started training in the mid-1970s. His first major success came in the 1987 Wellington Steeplechase with Storm.

"It does bring back some wonderful memories. It has happened a couple of times (winning the race) but it has been a long time since the first one in 1987," he said. Full story here

The South Auckland business, which already offers sales, airfreight, insurance, and finance services to the equine industry, will now offer accommodation on their sales complex, conveniently located just 20 minutes' drive from Auckland International Airport.

With 120 guest rooms, including four suites, a restaurant and bar, along with conference facilities, the hotel offers three room types and will be set amongst the picturesque Sales Centre at Karaka. Full story here

Another Dollar (NZ) (Ocean Park)

Another Dollar out to shake bridesmaid tag

New Zealand-bred galloper Another Dollar (NZ) (Ocean Park) will be vying to record her first win at Doomben on Saturday after placing in her previous six attempts at the Brisbane track.

The Chris Waller-trained mare will contest the Membership at BRC Open Handicap (2020m) and Waller's Queensland manager Paul Shailer is expecting a good showing from the daughter of Ocean Park.

"It is a funny thing to say about a horse that has never won on the track but Another Dollar goes well at Doomben," Shailer said.

"Her only attempt at the track and distance was a second to Youngstar in The Roses and that is good form for this.

"She was then a very good second in the Queensland Oaks (Gr.1, 2200m) at Doomben. If any horse deserves a win it is her."

Wise Men Say (NZ) (Yamanin Vital)

Wise Men Say set to defend crown

Wise Men Say (NZ) (Yamanin Vital) won last year's Grant Plumbing Wellington Steeplechase (5500m) at Trentham and he will return to the Wellington track on Saturday in a bid to defend his title.

The nine-year-old gelding has only had three starts since and his trainer Raymond Connors is hoping he can recapture some of his old form on Saturday.

"He was definitely going a lot better this time last year. We have probably been a bit slow in getting him going this year," Connors said.

The son of Yamanin Vital tailed the field home in the Hawke's Bay Steeplechase (4800m) last start and Connors is expecting a better performance on Saturday with the added distance. Full story here

Star filly back in work as Hillis takes one runner to Ruakaka

The upcoming return of a stable star has put a spring into the step of Wayne Hillis, who has been happy to put a few kilometres on the clock this winter.

The Matamata trainer took two horses on the 600km return journey to Ruakaka for each of the seaside track's two race meetings last month – Don't Doubt Me (NZ) (Ferlax) and Nothing Trivial (NZ) (Elusive City). The latter will be his only representative this Saturday when he lines up in the ITM/GIB Whangarei Gold Cup (2100m).

"He doesn't like the heavy tracks, so we're going to take him back up to Ruakaka again this weekend," Hillis said. "He might get away with slow ground, but definitely not anything worse than that. At this time of year, there really aren't many options apart from Ruakaka for a horse like him." Full story here

Phelan tip for Delacroix

The connections of North Canterbury jumper Delacroix (NZ) (Zabeel) have heeded the advice of Cambridge jumps jockey Shaun Phelan in his build-up to a couple of major missions this winter.

Delacroix won over 4280m in a restricted open steeplechase at Timaru in June by 11 and a half lengths when reunited with Phelan and purposely bypassed a trip south later in the month for a similar event at Wingatui.

"Shaun said don't go down to Dunedin as it would be too heavy for him so we've waited for Timaru again," co-trainer Karen Parsons said. "He'll run there on Friday then be aimed for the Grand National and maybe the Great Northern."

The Grand National Steeplechase (5600m) is at Riccarton on August 10, a month before the Great Northern Steeplechase (6400m) at Ellerslie.

A winner of six races on the flat and five over hurdles, Delacroix has shown much promise over country with three wins, three seconds and two thirds from 10 starts.

He finished seventh in last year's Grand National Steeplechase when still a maiden 'chaser and Phelan has been aboard in two of his steeplechase wins.

After originally being raced by Kevin Hickman, Delacroix now races in the interests of co-trainer John Parsons and former top jumps jockey Tommy Hazlett, whose feature wins included the 2006 Grand National Steeplechase on Bogeyman (NZ) (Cocky Golfer).

Conqueror (Fastnet Rock)

Guineas target for million-dollar colt

Million-dollar Karaka yearling, Conqueror (Fastnet Rock), broke maiden ranks in impressive fashion when demolishing his rivals by seven lengths over 1400m at Pakenham on Tuesday for the Lindsay Park team of David and Ben Hayes and Tom Dabernig.

The two-year-old colt by Fastnet Rock out of Group One winning Savabeel mare Diademe (NZ) sports the navy blue colours of Coolmore who race the colt in conjunction with some high-profile partners.

Sent out a $1.45 favourite, Conqueror comfortably found the lead in the hands of Luke Nolan and put a break on his rivals in the straight. Full story here

My Callisto (NZ) (Rock 'n' Pop)

My Callisto too strong at Avondale

The Richard Collett-trained My Callisto (NZ) (Rock 'n' Pop) showed his determined spirit when taking out the West Brook Wines 1600 at Avondale on Wednesday.

The three-year-old son of Rock 'n' Pop was caught three-wide the entire trip after jumping from his wide barrier, but he was able to gather in the leaders down the home straight to win by half a length over Sheez Leica (NZ) (Road To Rock).

Jockey Andrew Calder was pleased with the result after the pair finished runner-up on debut at Counties last month.

"I don't want to get too carried away with a maiden win, but he is going to make a really nice staying horse later on," Calder said. "He's destined to go 2000m and further.

"He was a bit green last time. Today he did things a lot better and I think blinkers will help him a lot.

"We are happy to let them learn a bit at this stage of their career."

My Callisto became the 34th winner for Waikato Stud stallion Rock 'N' Pop, who stands at the Matamata farm for a fee of $7,000+GST.

Fillies excel for South Auckland trainers

Byerley Park trainers Peter and Dawn Williams had a memorable season with several quality fillies and they are hoping they can continue that form into the new season.

The Gerry Harvey-owned two-year-old Rendition (NZ) (Pierro) struck her trainers as more of a three-year-old type, but the daughter of Pierro pleasantly surprised them with a string of placings, including a third in the Listed Champagne Stakes (1600m) at Ellerslie in April.

"She's had a good season," Peter Williams said. "We have always thought she would be a better three-year-old, but she has done a good job as a two-year-old. We will just press on now to the new season." Full story here

Emily Margaret recovering from operation

Riccarton trainers Pam and Kevin Hughes are looking forward to welcoming stable star Emily Margaret (NZ) (Pins) back into the team next month after her bone-chip operation.

A decisive winner of the New Zealand Bloodstock Southern Filly of the Year title, Emily Margaret was sent to Cambridge for surgery after ending her three-year-old campaign with a second behind Secret Allure (NZ) (Zacinto) in the Listed New Zealand Bloodstock Airfreight Stakes (1600m) at Riccarton in early April.

Hiflyer (NZ) (Tavistock)

Hiflyer on an extended break

Trainer Peter Lock has resisted the temptation to bring talented galloper Hiflyer (NZ) (Tavistock) back into work.

The Group One performer is currently spelling after suffering a back injury.

"He had a pulled muscle over his back and he is right now," Lock said.

"The vets had a look at him and said he could probably come into work now but I am going to give him a good break and let him strengthen.

"He has done extremely well on his break and they have done a great job at the place where he is."

Hiflyer had six starts during the 2018-19 season with his best performance being a runner-up finish behind Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands) in the Gr.1 Tarzino Trophy (1400m).

The six-year-old son of Tavistock races in the colours of breeders and co-owners Sir Patrick and Lady Justine Hogan and has won nine of his 29 starts, with a further 10 placings.

Record prizemoney in HK

Hong Kong racing will offer record prizemoney of HK$1.3 billion (NZ$246.5 million) for the 2019/20 season. Lucrative increases to FWD Champions Day's three Group One races and the BMW Hong Kong Derby (2000m) feature among the Hong Kong Jockey Club's upward adjustments revealed today, Tuesday, 9 July.

The FWD Champions Day fixture has proven to be a huge success in two editions so far. In keeping with its world class status, the Gr.1 FWD Queen Elizabeth II Cup (2000m) has received a HK$1 million boost and will be worth HK$25 million (NZ$4.74 million) in 2020; the Gr.1 FWD Champions Mile (1600m) is up HK$2 million to HK$20 million (NZ$3.79 million); and the Gr.1 Chairman's Sprint Prize (1200m) is worth HK$18 million (NZ$3.41 million), an increase of HK$2 million.

The historic BMW Hong Kong Derby is Hong Kong's most important domestic contest and will be worth HK$20 million (NZ$ 3.79 million, a HK$2 million increase on the 2019 renewal.

Total prizemoney for the 2019/20 season's 88 meetings at Sha Tin and Happy Valley is up by 6.5 percent on the 2018/19 season. The purse increases span all handicap races from Class 1 down to Class 5.

"Our owners invest heavily to bring high-quality horses to Hong Kong, which underpins our world-class racing," said Andrew Harding, Executive Director, Racing, at the Hong Kong Jockey Club.

"It is important that they are rewarded for their investments and this is reflected in the rises across our five classes of handicap races and the Derby. The BMW Hong Kong Derby is the race every Hong Kong owner wants to win.

They scour the world looking to buy the right horse, their costs are rising in a competitive bloodstock market and it is vital that we offer generous incentives. Our purse increases, including the Derby's new HK$20 million prize fund, are calibrated to recognise this."

New Zealand-bred gallopers have enjoyed another fine season in Hong Kong, winning more black-type races (13) than any other nation. New Zealand-bred horses have won 25.8 percent of races in Hong Kong this season from a supply of 23.5 percent of runners.

Additionally, six of the past 10 Hong Kong Derby winners are New Zealand-bred, including this year's winner Furore (NZ) (Pierro).

Road To Rock

Wellfield offers bonus opportunity

Wellfield Lodge is encouraging broodmare owners to 'breed with confidence' this year after announcing their stallion fees for the upcoming season.

The Manawatu farm will stand each of their three resident stallions Alamosa, Road to Rock and Vespa, at $5000+GST.

As an added bonus, the farm is offering any breeder that sends two mares to the same stallion an additional incentive. When two mares owned by the same entity are sent to the same stallion, the first mare in foal will be at a cost of $5,000 +GST, and the second mare in foal will be free.

"We believe this offer represents outstanding value and has been offered to encourage breeders to consider breeding their mares at an affordable level," Wellfield Lodge principal Bill Gleeson said.

Four-time Group One winner Alamosa has established himself as a proven sire, his leading performer of the season was On The Rocks (NZ) who won the Gr.2 Rich Hill Mile (1600m) before taking out the Gr.1 Herbie Dyke (2000m) two starts later.

Road To Rock has had a standout season due to his best performer, Hong Kong champion Beauty Generation (NZ). The seven-time Group One winner is currently the world's highest rated active racehorse, and the highest earner in history to have raced in Hong Kong.

Rounding out the stallion trio is champion two-year-old of his year Vespa. His oldest crop is rising two and with positive reports coming through from trainers, Wellfield Lodge are eagerly anticipating their arrival at the racetrack in the 2019-20 season.

Southern Icon (Big Brown)

Foxbridge again in mind for Southern Icon

Matamata trainer Alan Tait may give Southern Icon (Big Brown) another crack at the Gr.2 Foxbridge Plate (1200m) at Te Rapa next month.

Southern Icon finished eighth in the feature sprint in 2016 and returned 12 months later to run a creditable fourth behind Underthemoonlight (NZ) (El Hermano).

The seven-year-old son of Big Brown was off the scene when the race was run last year, but Tait is hoping a lead-up run at Te Rapa either later this month or early August will have him ready for another attack on the event.

"We'll just see how he goes next start," Tait said. "He's well and it's just the wet tracks that have kept me from racing him since he won."

Southern Icon recorded the 10th win of his career when scoring over 1400m at Hastings on April 27 as a late entry for the race.

"After Hastings, he was to run at Ellerslie over the long weekend, but it rained so I scratched him," Tait said. "He's not a heavy tracker."

Meanwhile Tait plans to return to Ruakaka this weekend with Time To Fly (NZ) (Fully Fledged), who scored an upset win on the track last start.

O'Sullivan successfully rounding off HK season

Paul O'Sullivan is following his stable's fortunes over the final few racedays in Hong Kong during his annual fortnight visit back home to Matamata.

A win at Sha Tin on Sunday by Wayfoong Charmer (Dream Ahead), has taken O'Sullivan's tally for the season to 25 wins and almost HK$32 million (NZ$6.1 million) in prizemoney and there's the prospect of more success by the conclusion of the final day of the Hong Kong season next Sunday.

"It's been another successful season and we'll have runners again next weekend," O'Sullivan said. Full story here

Parsons surprised by milestone

John and Karen Parsons were caught by surprise with the latest milestone in their training careers.

When Sitarist (NZ), a Road To Rock mare part-owned by Karen Parsons, won the open 2200m at Ashburton last Wednesday she took the prizemoney tally for the Balcairn-based couple beyond $1 million for the season.

It's just the second time the Parsons have eclipsed the $1 million barrier. The previous occasion was in the 2012-13 season when the star of their stable Final Touch (NZ) (Kashani) picked up three Group One wins – the Captain Cook Stakes (1600m), the Telegraph (1200m) and the Waikato Draught Sprint (1400m) – and went on to land the New Zealand Champion Sprinter Award. ### McNamara to return home decided to move back to his homeland of Australia in the new season.

McNamara will move to Sydney to be closer to family and has secured a role with Sky as a presenter and racecaller.

"I'll be sad to go but I am also looking forward to the new challenge," McNamara said.

"I'm going home to be closer to family so it is a personal decision, but on a professional level I am thrilled to have a role with Sky and looking forward to seeing where that takes me."

With the move, McNamara will also resign from his duties as riding agent for jockeys Zinjete Moki and Samantha Wynne.

McNamara's last day of calling will be at Addington Raceway on August 22.

NZTBA represents breeders in healthy rivers policy change

An increase in political action will provide policy and regulatory framework to remedy the declining water quality throughout New Zealand.

It has been well documented that poor farming practises over the years have led to a loss of nutrients in the soil and pollution of the waterways, and that it is no longer acceptable.

Not surprisingly the Waikato Regional Council, which has the one of the largest rivers in the country flowing through its region, is proactive in wanting to provide policy and regulations for healthy rivers. Recently the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Association (NZTBA) was part of the hearing process when defining this policy. The finding from this hearing will see major rule change and compliance on agricultural farming including equine farming in the region. Full story here
