LOR'S FURORE, BOWMAN BRINGS HOME THE BMW HONG KONG DERBY

Karaka graduate Furore bolts home in the Hong Kong Derby

Furore (NZ) (Pierro) won the HK$18 million BMW Hong Kong Derby (2000m) at Sha Tin Racecourse with a brilliant victory that fulfilled Frankie Lor's dream of becoming the first "home grown" Hong Kong trainer to land the race for 11 years.

"I can't express my feelings," the handler said, after claiming Hong Kong's most prestigious local prize in only his second season with a trainers' licence.

"To have one horse to even run in the Derby – now I've won the Derby, so it's a dream come true!"

Hugh Bowman charted Furore's path from a wide starting point in Gate 12; rolling his mount forward and slotting neatly into a handy berth one spot off the rail, all before the field of 14 had made it through the first turn.

"Although Furore drew poorly, I was confident he could do the job if I could get him in the right position," the Australian ace said. "I had the stablemate (Mission Tycoon), the likely leader, drawn next to me (11); I thought I could at least go with him to start with and see where we end up. I was able to get a lovely run three pairs back."

Sweynesse is a chip off the old block

Darren Beadman

Sweynesse, is a son of former champion racehorse and super sire Lonhro. Beadman rode Lonhro in most of his 26 wins and he gets to work with many of that horse's sons and daughters at Godolphin.

- A multiple Group One performer (2nd G1 Randwick Guineas, 3rd G1 Spring Champion) beating some of the best 3YO Group One winners in Australia including Kermedec, Preferment, Hampton Court, Shooting To Win, First Seal.
- Winner of first four starts including dual Group 3 wins in the Spring Stakes and Gloaming Stakes.
- A winner at only start as a 2YO.
- A top 3YO Timeform rating of 122 makes Sweynesse one of the top Australian 3YO colts of his year.
- By Lonhro -The Champion 3YO, the Champion miler, the Horse of the Year, and now a Champion sire. Lonhro set a new Australian record of 160 individual winners in a season. His son Pierro, unbeaten juvenile Triple Crown winner, was rated the best juvenile colt in Australia since 1977.
- Out of the multiple winning mare Swansea by Champion Sire Singspiel (5xG1 Winner and sire of 98SW).
- Sweynesse is a magnificent individual. He stands 16.2 hh. He has a powerful hind quarter, a strong shoulder and a great athletic walk. He is very correct.
- Sweynesse is syndicated amongst many of New Zealand's top breeders who are strongly supporting him at stud.

LOR'S FURORE, BOWMAN BRINGS HOME THE BMW HONG KONG DERBY

That proved to be the perfect position as Ka Ying Star (Cityscape) and Mission Tycoon (Written Tycoon) shared the lead in pedestrian style. That tempo seemed to foil the chances of $1.9 favourite Waikuku (Harbour Watch), taken back from Gate 14 to sit second last under Joao Moreira.

Zac Purton, meanwhile, decided his chances on the stamina-laden Lor runner Dark Dream (All American) were being compromised.

"I was pleased when Zac pressed on with Dark Dream," Bowman said. "It just gave me the option to get on his back, and he was one of the main dangers. He gave me a dream cart into the race and my horse was able to get the job done as he did over the mile two starts ago."

Bowman slipstreamed Purton into the home straight, shifted out, and, with 300m to race, asked for a change of gear. Furore quickened to the lead as the two front-runners wilted and Dark Dream boxed one-paced.

The victor galloped on strongly, stopping the clock at 2m 01.30s. It was Bowman's second Hong Kong Derby triumph, three years after he partnered Werther (NZ) (Tavistock) and making Furore the 6th New Zealand-bred winner of the Hong Kong Derby in the past ten years.

Lor will now point Furore towards FWD Champions Day at Sha Tin on 28 April, with the FWD QEII Cup (2000m) at the course and distance the likely option, although the handler is going to cover his bases.

Furore was a $210,000 purchase from the Haunui

Farm draft at the 2016 National Yearling Sale at Karaka by Luke Murrell and Jamie Lovett of Australian Bloodstock, in partnership with Newcastle-based trainer Kris Lees.

Bred by GSA Bloodstock principal Jonathan Munz, he won his first four starts for Lees before finishing third in the 2018 Gr.1 Rosehill Guineas (2000m) behind D'Argento (So You Think). Following an unplaced run in the Gr.1 ATC Derby (2400m) he was sold to Hong Kong interests for his future racing where he has now won two of his five starts, including two legs of the four-year-old Triple Crown Series, including the Hong Kong Classic Mile (1600m) and now the Hong Kong Derby (2000m).

The victory continues the tremendous run of form for horses raised at the Chitty Family's Haunui Farm at Karaka, south of Auckland, with other recent graduates including six-time Group One winner Melody Belle (NZ) (Commands) and New Zealand Bloodstock Filly of the Year Imelda Mary (NZ) (Ferlax).

CONCERT HALL BUILDS TO CRESCENDO

The Roger James and Robert Wellwood-trained Concert Hall (NZ) (Savabeel) produced an impressive last-to-first performance to land the Gr.3 Wentwood Grange Cuddle Stakes (1600m) at Trentham on Saturday, setting her up for a tilt at even better things.

The daughter of Savabeel has now won three races in succession and claimed her first black-type for Hamilton owner-breeder Joan Egan.

"I thought it was a bit special," James said.

"She was last for a lot of the race and they haven't really been getting home that well from the back, so it was a super effort.

"I looked at the half-mile and thought, while we're last, there is true pace so that helped us. Having said that it is still a good effort."

The four-year-old mare will now tackle the Gr.1 Fiber Fresh NZ Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (1600m) at Te Aroha on April 6.

"It is wonderful for Joan Egan," James said. "She is a passionate breeder and she has had the family for a long time. I can't imagine the thrill she is getting."

Winning rider Matthew Cameron was comfortable going back from the gate and was never too concerned on the well-supported $1.80 favourite.

"Just talking to Roger before the race, he left it up to me and barrier 10 out of 11 is a bit awkward," Cameron said.

"She's not a horse you want to get too carried away with at the start and we know she has got an electric turn of foot, so I was happy to flop out the back.

“When I got that three-wide train going forward, it got a little bit messy on the turn, I got flushed out trying to keep her balanced, but once she balanced up, she really let-down nicely.”

Cameron said he thought the step-up to Group One company would not be beyond Concert Hall and there was more to come.

“The track is a bit off, it is quite testing, but she has got a lot of upside to her,” Cameron said.

“I think she will measure up fine with a step-up in class. When she comes up against these older, proven horses, she is going to have something to chase and she is pretty versatile where she races, so the long straight at Te Aroha should suit her.”

Concert Hall had 2½ lengths to spare from Jessiegee (NZ) (Alamosa), with Tinkalicious (NZ) (Nadeem) back in third.

Concert Hall is likely to be one of two runners in the Thoroughbred Breeders’ Stakes for Joan Egan, with the Team Rogerson-trained Sandrine (NZ), also a homebred daughter of Savabeel, set to contest the fillies and mares feature.

Egan completed the weekend in fine style when her Bullbars four-year-old, Beauden, landed the Shane Brown Racing Woodville-Pahiatua Cup (1600m) at Woodville on Sunday.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Karaka Million 2YO winner Probabeel (Trish Dunell)

Sires’ Produce still the target for Kiwi filly

Exciting New Zealand two-year-old Probabeel (NZ) (Savabeel) is still on target for the Gr.1 Sires’ Produce Stakes (1400m) at Randwick next month after she finished a commendable sixth at her Australian debut on the weekend.

The Savabeel filly was all at sea in the heavy underfoot conditions in the Gr.3 Magic Night Stakes (1200m) at Rosehill where she maintained a solid finish in the home straight after being near last for most of the contest.

Trainer Jamie Richards was confident his charge would take plenty of benefit from the run, her first since winning the Karaka Million 2YO (1200m) at Ellerslie in late January.

“The track at Rosehill was very deep and testing and she didn’t handle it all that well,” he said.

“She dipped and dived a fair bit and had to make a long, sustained run to get near them, which is never easy at that track.

“I thought she kept coming nicely and I know she will be better for the run, her first for about six or seven weeks.

“I guess when you see a six in her form-line it doesn’t look that great, but given the circumstances, I think it was a satisfactory effort.

“She has come through the run nicely, so it is all go for the Sires’ Produce in three weeks.” – NZ Racing Desk

ESPRESSO MARTINI BACK TO WINNING FORM AT TAURANGA

Promising three-year-old Espresso Martini (NZ) (High Chaparral) resumed from a brief break in fine fashion when she dealt to her older rivals over 1400m at Tauranga on Saturday.

The royally-bred High Chaparral filly hadn't been seen since finishing down the track in the Gr.1 Levin Classic (1600m) at Trentham back in January.

That unplaced run came off the back of a tidy effort for fifth in the Gr.2 Eight Carat Classic (1600m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day following a win at the same venue in the Listed Trevor Eagle Memorial 3YO (1500m) earlier in December.

Sent straight to the front from a handy barrier draw by rider Lynsey Satherley, Espresso Martini dominated proceedings.

After stacking the field up approaching the home turn, Espresso Martini kicked strongly in the final 200m to win going away by a neat length on the Dead4 rated surface.

Co-trainer Murray Baker, who prepares the filly with training partner Andrew Forsman, had expected a forward showing from his charge and got exactly what he was looking for.

"She is a pretty nice filly and we were expecting a forward showing from her," Baker said.

"In saying that she was taking on the older horses first up, so it was a good effort to win."

Baker felt the brief spell after the disappointing run in the Levin Classic had worked well in Espresso Martini's favour.

"She definitely needed a break after a couple of tough runs and she has come back nicely," he said.

"She is a 1400m-1600m filly, so the distance was perfect for her as was the cut in the track, which is something I think she prefers."

Baker will let the dust settle before deciding on an autumn path for the filly who is a daughter of Gr.1 Levin

Classic (1600m) winner, Keepa Cruisin (NZ) (Keeper) who was also placed on two further occasions at Group One level.

Baker was philosophical when questioned about the performance of his three stable runners in the day's feature event at Trentham, the Gr.1 Al Basti Equiworld Dubai New Zealand Oaks (2400m).

Savabeel filly Clementina (NZ) finished an unlucky fourth after being held-up in the home straight while race favourite Queen Of Diamonds (NZ) (Savabeel) and Rubira (Lope De Vega) dropped out after both looked likely prospects early in the run home."I thought Clementina was very good as she didn't get a lot of luck in the run home and made ground strongly at the end," he said.

"The other two were a little disappointing and on the surface, they probably didn't quite get the trip.

"They will come home and we can take a look at how they pull up before we do too much more with them."

BOLT FROM THE BLUE STREAKS HOME AT TAURANGA

Speed machine Bolt From The Blue (NZ) (Rip Van Winkle) was back to his front-running best when he showed his three-year-old rivals a clean pair of heels at Tauranga on Saturday.

The Tony Pike-trained galloper had indicated his readiness to resume from a four-month break over the summer months with a hollow victory over 1000m at the Avondale trials in late February.

Successful on debut over 1000m at Taupo back in September, the Rip Van Winkle gelding was then narrowly defeated over 1200m at Tauranga at his second start by subsequent stakes winner Spirits Aubeer (Spirit Of Boom).

A disappointing run at Rotorua saw him put aside before resuming on Saturday where he was sent out a warm favourite for the 1200m contest.

Hunted to the lead by rider Vinnie Colgan, Bolt From The Blue had his six rivals in trouble a long way from home. Colgan let the brakes go early in the run home and the stylish chestnut dashed away to win untouched by five and a half lengths in a smart 1.10.01 on a Dead5 rated surface.

“He likes to run that way (in front) and the track on the dead side suited him,” Colgan said.

“He did trial nicely at Avondale a couple of weeks back, so the writing was on the wall.

“He had a real good kick at the 400m, although he’s still a little big in condition, so he will improve with the race.”

Pike stable representative Chris McNab said they had been expecting a good performance based on the improvement the horse had made during his summer break.

“He’s come back way better and way stronger this time,” he said.

Bolt From The Blue is owned by a large syndicate that includes the estate of the late Peter Mitchell and carries the colours made famous by Mitchell’s champion galloper, Bonecrusher (NZ) (Pag Asa).

From Flying Spur mare Miss Ottey, he was a $50,000 purchase from the Windsor Park Stud draft at the 2017 National Yearling Sale and hails from an extended family that includes two Gr.1 Golden Slipper (1200m) winners in Capitalist (Written Tycoon) and Merlene (Danehill).

EQUINOX BACK TO HIS BEST AT TRENTHAM

Exciting two-year-old Equinox (inner) adds a second Trentham victory to his resume (Trish Dunell)

Reminiscent of his impressive debut, two-year-old colt Equinox (NZ) (Exceed And Excel) once again showed his liking for the Trentham track with a hard-fought victory at the venue on Saturday.

A $750,000 purchase by Te Akau Racing boss David Ellis at the 2018 National Yearling Sale, Equinox was not comfortable on slow ground in the Gr.3 Waikato Stud Slipper (1200m) last time at Matamata, after making a winning debut over 1000m at Trentham in January.

Replacement rider Michael McNab, who secured the mount when Troy Harris was stood down after being dislodged a day earlier at Te Aroha, bounced Equinox away quickly to dictate the play from in front.

Asked for a serious effort at the top of the Trentham straight, Equinox extended his advantage before holding out a strong late challenge from impressive Cambridge raider Holy Mongolempere (NZ) (More Than Ready), who stormed home from last to be denied by a long head.

Ellis, who purchased the colt as a member of the three-strong 2018 colts breeding syndicate from his 2018 Karaka purchases, is looking forward to the son of Exceed And Excel tackling the Gr.1 Courtesy Ford Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (1400m) on March 30 as his next assignment.

"It's a great thrill for my owners in the Colts' Syndicate because he's now won two of his three starts and all going well, can go on to contest a Group One in a couple of weeks," he said.

"We'd like to see good ground for him in the Sires' and ride him with a bit of cover.

EQUINOX BACK TO HIS BEST AT TRENTHAM

“It was great for Michael to pick up the ride because he’s been riding a lot of work for us and my policy is to put those on that ride the work.”

Trainer Jamie Richards was also delighted with the run.

“I said to Michael, I’d like to see him tuck in but it may not be the day to do that and he got a nice soft lead,” he said.

“He’ll be a better colt when he’s ridden with cover and give him something to chase.

“He probably still wants the track a little better again (for the Sires’), but we’re heading into the autumn and the horse is going well. I thought Michael gave him every chance and the second horse had trialled really well, so I think the form will stack up.”

For McNab, the win continued his good form on the course after riding three winners on Wellington Cup Day in January.

“I know a fair bit about him and go over to ride for Te Akau, so I knew him well enough,” McNab said.

“He’s still only three parts there and doesn’t really know what he’s doing, but he’s a got a real presence about him, a really cool horse that knows he’s pretty cool.

“When he puts it all together, he could be very good.”

Equinox is now rated a $12 chance for the Sires’ Produce in a market headed by Group One winning stablemate Yourdeel (NZ) (Dundeel) at $2.40.
